Introduction

The Language Center offers language classes through Nassau Community College's Workforce Development and Lifelong Learning Department. We teach English Language Skills, Foreign Languages, and American Sign Language. The Language Center serves the needs of the community and is geared toward students who want to strengthen their overall language proficiency.

Courses are taught on weekday mornings, afternoons, evenings, and Saturdays. Three 8-week sessions are held each year in the Fall, Spring, and Summer, and a 6-week session is given in the Winter.

The English core classes, levels 1 through 5, focus on the simultaneous development of all English language skills including writing, listening, speaking, reading, and grammar. The session's elective classes include Conversation Skills, Pronunciation Skills, TOEFL Preparation, and Personal Writing Skills. We also have Introduction to the English Language for beginning English language learners.

CLASSES WILL BE OFFERED REMOTELY. Courses will be instructed using email and video conferencing and will meet remotely during the days and times listed. Participation requires the use of a device with ZOOM audio/video conferencing capability.

NO CLASSES WILL MEET FACE TO FACE.

The Language Center is devoted to giving students the necessary tools for successful language acquisition. Call us at (516) 572-7062 to learn more about the classes we offer and to register for the upcoming session.

CORE CLASSES

INTRODUCTION TO THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE (CE5 206 SR4)

In this class, non-English speaking students will learn basic English language skills. Lessons will include the alphabet, number names, and beginning spelling and pronunciation. Students will also study common vocabulary words and phrases to begin to understand spoken and written English; they will practice activities such as getting directions, telling time, making appointments, and managing money.

CE5 206 SR4 Meets: Saturday, 9:30am-1:30pm for 12 sessions.

Starts March 6

Fee: $395

ENGLISH LANGUAGE SKILLS 1 (CE5 207 SR3)

Students with a basic knowledge of English language skills will develop important fundamental writing, speaking, listening, and reading skills. The goal of this class is to help students better understand day-to-day conversation, short written communication, and media programs. Students will use new vocabulary words, pronouns, singular and plural nouns, and simple verb tenses.

CE5 207 SR3 Meets: Monday and Wednesday, 6:00pm-9:00pm for 16 sessions.

Starts March 8

Fee: $395

ENGLISH LANGUAGE SKILLS 2 (CE5 208 SRI, SR3)

This class will focus on writing, conversation, and reading skills to improve all English language abilities. Students will review verb tenses taught in level 1 and become familiar with additional verb tenses. They will learn new vocabulary and will continue to write simple as well as compound sentences, use words in the correct order, and identify major parts of speech.

Fee: $395

ENGLISH LANGUAGE SKILLS 3 (CE5 209 SRI, SR3)

In this course, students will strengthen their English language skills, integrating reading, writing, listening, and conversational activities. The class will use and identify more difficult vocabulary words, sentence structures and verb tenses than those taught in lower level classes. Students will practice writing paragraphs; additionally, they will examine the format of short articles, essays, e-mail messages, and/or business letters and apply this information so their written work may be better understood.

CE5 209 SRI Meets: Monday and Wednesday, 9:30am-12:30pm for 16 sessions.

Starts March 8

CE5 209 SR3 Meets: Monday and Wednesday, 6:00pm-9:00pm for 16 sessions.

Starts March 8

Fee: $395

ENGLISH LANGUAGE SKILLS 4 (CE5 210 SRI, SR3)

Students will continue to practice writing, reading, listening, and speaking to increase overall English language aptitude. They will become familiar with complex sentence structures and more complicated verb tenses. Members of this class will write documents such as essays, business letters, memorandums, and formal e-mail messages. Students will also give at least one oral report. The organization of written and oral presentation formats and phrases that help speakers and writers create relationships among ideas will be explored.

CE5 210 SRI Meets: Monday and Wednesday, 9:30am-12:30pm for 16 sessions.

Starts March 8

CE5 210 SR3 Meets: Monday and Wednesday, 6:00pm-9:00pm for 16 sessions.

HIGH SCHOOL EQUIVALENCY (TASC) MATH REVIEW (PREVIOUSLY GED)

Prerequisites: Students should have a basic knowledge of arithmetic, algebra, and geometric principles. This course is designed for students whose math skills are sufficient for taking the High School Equivalency (HSE) math test, but feel they need a brush-up before taking the test. It is an intensive program of math which will include a review of problem-solving techniques and general math topics. Included in the course are: concepts in algebra, geometry, number relations; data analysis and statistics, including writing and solving equations; determining rates of change; graphing and coordinate geometry; interpreting bar charts, circle graphs in association with numerical estimation; and determination of problem-solving parameters.

Book required for the first session: TASC Prep, Fifth Edition, by Kaplan Test Prep. STUDENTS ARE ASKED TO PURCHASE A TI-30XS CALCULATOR (OR HAVE ACCESS TO A DIGITAL VERSION OF THE CALCULATOR) AND WORKBOOK TO PROPERLY REVIEW FOR THE HSE MATH SECTION.

Instructor: Donna D'Ambrosio
