

Nassau Community College

Workforce Development & Lifelong Learning Programs ELIGIBILITY INFORMATION

Workforce development training courses, English language skills course and high school equivalency review courses are currently available for free through Nassau Community College's Office of Workforce Development and Lifelong Learning.

To be eligible for a scholarship, you must meet basic requirements including:

- Be an unemployed or under-employed Nassau, Suffolk, or Queens County resident
- Be at least 17 years of age
- Have earned a high school diploma or equivalent for workforce training opportunities*
- Have access to a computer and Wi-Fi (courses may have a remote learning components)
- Meet HUD income eligibility requirements (determination will be based on documentation provided with your application). Income eligibility is based on the number of members in your household and the total income of all the members of the household. Please submit your income documents after blacking out personal identification information such as a Social Security number.

Workforce Development Training Opportunities

More information on workforce development training courses (e.g. EMT, EKG Technician, SHRM-CP/SHRM-SCP, Dental Assisting, Pharmacy Technician, etc.) can be found at this link: Center for Workforce Development Course Offerings

High School Equivalency Review and English Language Skills Course Opportunities

High School Equivalency Review Course Information can be found at:

https://ncc.edu/continuingeducation/pdfs/Test_Prep.pdf

English Language Skills Course Information can be found at:

<https://ncc.edu/continuingeducation/pdfs/ELS.pdf>

Training and Course Application link: Application

Program made possible in part by the generous support of Bank of America.