SUBJECT: Announcement of Nassau Community College's Next President

We are pleased to inform you that the Board of Trustees has asked Jermaine F. Williams, Ed.D., to assume the position of President of Nassau Community College (NCC) pending final negotiations. He is expected to assume the office on July 1, 2019. We face remarkable opportunities as we continue to expand upon NCC's rich history, and we welcome the leadership of Dr. Jermaine Williams.

Dr. Williams brings to the campus community a wide variety of experiences and skillsets, and his emphasis on supporting underrepresented groups will resound well with our students. As Nassau Community College's seventh President, Dr. Williams' appointment represents a new and exciting chapter in the ever-evolving history of our College. The Nassau Community College Board of Trustees welcomes Dr. Williams and is looking forward to a vibrant and successful presidency as we expand the horizons of Nassau Community College educational mission.

Jermaine F. Williams, Ed.D., is the Vice President of Student Affairs at North Shore Community College, with campuses in Danvers, Lynn, and Middleton, MA. He previously served as the Assistant Vice President for Access, Transition, and Success at Northeastern Illinois University in Chicago, IL. Dr. Williams earned a Doctor of Education and Master of Education in Educational Administration from Temple University in Philadelphia, PA; a Master of Arts in Sociology from St. John's University in Queens, NY; and a Bachelor of Arts in Anthropology and Sociology at Lafayette College in Easton, PA.

We would also like to express our wholehearted appreciation to the college community for your input and participation throughout the presidential search process.
