

a r t d e p a r t m e n t

ARTFORUMS

APRIL 2019

▶ ANGKOR WAT AND ANCIENT KHMER (CAMBODIA)

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 24 • 3:30 PM – 4:30 PM • PLAZA ART GALLERY, TOWER, PLAZA LEVEL

Professor Jeffrey Allen Price will share his experience visiting Angkor Wat and other ancient temples in Cambodia earlier this year. Angkor Wat is the largest temple complex in the world and was one of over 200 sacred sites built during the Khmer Empire (ca.800- 1400AD). Professor Price will share his photographs and discuss the history and iconography of several other important sites such as Banteay Srei, Ta Prohm, The Bayon, and The River of a Thousand Lingas.

▶ ART SPEAK: PANEL DISCUSSION

THURSDAY, APRIL 25 • 11:45 AM – 12:45 PM • BUILDING G, C65

Panel Discussion with NCC's art students. Listen as they discuss their experience in an art course at NCC, their own work, and future plans. Followed by a Question and Answer period. Lite refreshments will be served.

▶ 2019 ART STUDENT EXHIBIT WALKTHROUGH

TUESDAY, APRIL 30 • 11:30 AM – 12:30 PM • PLAZA ART GALLERY, TOWER, PLAZA LEVEL

Student artist, Joseph Gioia, will guide visitors on a walkthrough tour of the Art Student Exhibit, included with a Question and Answer discussion. Last chance for questionnaires!

---

a r t d e p a r t m e n t

ARTFORUMS

---

MAY 2019

▶ TED TALK: CAN ART AMEND HISTORY?

THURSDAY, MAY 2 • 11:45 AM – 12:45 PM • BUILDING G, C65

Titus Kaphar's artworks interact with the history of art by appropriating its styles and mediums. Kaphar's TED TALK is an interesting blend of art history, personal artistic experience and social justice.

▶ READINGS BY NCC CREATIVE WRITING STUDENTS

THURSDAY, MAY 16 • 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM • PLAZA ART GALLERY, TOWER, PLAZA LEVEL

Creative Writing students from the English Department will read original work. Lite refreshments will be served.